JUDGES

Phoebe Sheets has been a rider and trainer and all-around horsewoman for over 50 years. Out of her boutique stables in Germantown (Memphis), TN, she has led her riders to many Premier and National competitions. Most of the year is spent in the eastern part of the U.S. including the Florida circuits, until it is time for Capital Challenge, The Pennsylvania National Horse Show, The Washington International Horse Show, and The National Horse Show.

Fellow judges and trainers urged Phoebe to work towards her judging license, which she has now held for nearly a decade. Phoebe holds her "R" in Hunters, Equitation, and Breeding and has been a regular at WEF, Saugerties, Traverse City, Virginia, and in California, among many well-known competitions.

Besides all the horses in the barn answering to her, Phoebe has a 42-yearold son and two well-behaved corgis.

A native of St Louis, MO, who currently lives in Southern Pines, NC where she teaches and trains a select group of clients and is a USEF R Hunter and Equitation Judge as well as a USEF R Steward.

As a junior she was fortunate to train with the likes of Diane Young, Susan Baginski, Sue Ashe and Otis Brown Jr and compete successfully at shows from Wellington to Indoors. After graduating from the University of Louisville she went on to work for John Roper, Archie Cox and Jim Hagman as well as run her own Redwood Farm in Woodside, CA. Has trained many top horses and riders to ribbons at Devon, Indoors and multiple medal finals.

When not travelling to horse shows to compete or officiate Danielle spends her time with her husband Trey and their three corgis, Short Stack, Maple and Jeffrey.

JUDGES

ANDREAM.

Andrea M. Wells, from Ocala, Florida holds USEF and CEF 'R' licenses for Hunters, Jumpers & Hunter Seat Equitation. She has more than 20 years of judging experience that includes officiating at top shows across this country and Canada. Most recently, Andrea judged the prestigious 2021 $100,000 World Equestrian Center Equitation Championship, as well as both the East and West Coast USEF Junior Hunter Finals. She also had the privilege to judge the 2021 USHJA Pre-Green Incentive Championships and The International Hunter Derby Finals. Andrea strives to improve the Hunter/Jumper portion of the industry with her service on the USHJA Licensed Officials Education Committee, the Equitation Task Force Committee and is a Mentor Judge for the USEF.

Phillip long lives in Raleigh NC, he has officiated on both coast in the US and Canada. Phillip has trained horses and riders to qualify for Devon and indoors as well as winning national and zone year end awards.

Recently Phillip and his partner Randy Neumann have been purchasing and developing horses for the hunter ring. Together between judging giving clinics and partnering with some top people for sales and development of the young horses life is staying plenty busy.

This is Phillip's first time at the Nor Cal Finals is looking forward to a wonderful event.

COURSE DESIGNERS

Chris grew up on an equestrian show jumping farm raising horses and rode from a very young age till I was about 12 years old. He attended horse shows with his mother Caroline Jones and Father Kip Jones.

As a Level 2* FEI Jumper Course Designer and a Senior Hunter Course Designer, he enjoys the designing process.

He also enjoys working with wood, building jumps and doing renovations on homes, taking a liking to welding and working with metal over the last couple years as well.

His hobbies consist of fishing, hiking and off roading at my home south of Calgary Alberta.

Meghan Rawlins is a FEI Level 3 Course Designer, as well as an EC Senior Course Designer, USEF R Course Designer and a dynamic and involved trainer at her home barn, Cedar Vista Stables. Meghan has designed courses at top venues across North America, including the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto ON, the Maclay Regional Finals, WEF, Thunderbird Show park as well as a number of FEI Grand Prixs during the 2022 show season. Meghan has also taken great pride in being a part of the USEF Mentor Program, allowing her to help progress the hunter/jumper sport through her knowledge and expertise.

Round Meadow Farm is proud to support the NorCal Medal Finals.

Good luck to the riders this year, and cheers to a safe and successful 2023!

YEAR END AWARDS

January 15, 2023 Intercontinental Hotel San Francisco

Lightacres sponsors the NorCal award for the Best Medal Horse in honor of EVAN.

Evan took his riders to top 10 finishes in every major medal final. He particularly loved the NorCal Medal Finals. He carried the winners of the 1995 and 1996 Junior Medal Champions and the 1993 Reserve Champion. It is in his honor that we sponsor this award which will be given to the horse, determined by the judges, to be the "Best Horse" of the NorCal Junior or Senior Finals
